

#slansw21 Professional Learning Summit PROGRAM

8:30 am	Registration	Sign on Library Foyer Login in Zoom
8:45 am	Welcome &amp; Housekeeping	Library theatre and Zoom broadcast
8:50 – 9:35 am	Keynote 1 - The Literacy Leader Karen Yager - Reading Australia Fellow 2020 In Australia, our vast landscapes have become living characters. The focus of Karen Yager’s fellowship activity is to develop an extensive three-part resource for English teachers using the evocative writing of Australian writers who have captured the heart and soul of landscapes to inspire young people to improve their own writing. Research (Beveridge, 2019) has demonstrated that one way to improve student writing is by immersing students in quality texts so that they can experience how language is used effectively to engage readers and capture life and people evocatively. Reading and writing are synergistic processes.	Library theatre and Zoom broadcast
9:40 – 10:25 am	Workshop 1 - Reading and Writing - We're on the same page: How collaboration between Teacher Librarians and English Teachers can improve student writing outcomes. This workshop will address the outcomes that can be achieved through the collaboration between Teacher Librarians and English Teachers to support student writing. Upon completion of the workshop participants will have developed concepts and identified strategies that they can apply in their teaching.
	Workshop 1A: Reading and Writing - Primary Teachers	TKS - Library and Zoom Breakout Room
	Workshop 1B: Reading and Writing - Secondary Teachers	TKS - Library and Zoom Breakout Room
10:30 – 11:10 am	Awards and morning tea	Library theatre and Zoom broadcast
11:15 – 12:00 noon	Keynote 2 - The Laureate Ursula Dubosarsky - Australian Children's Laureate 2020-2021 Ursula Dubosarsky believes that libraries underpin the function of the Australian’s Children Laureate. In her role as Laureate, Ursula’s focus is on reading and storytelling. She believes that Librarians and libraries play a vital and wonderful role in nurturing young people’s engagement in reading and storytelling. Ursula’s Keynote will discuss the role Teacher Librarians play in reading engagement in their school.	Library theatre and Zoom broadcast
12:05 – 12:50 pm	Workshop 2 - Leading the Reading: How Teacher Librarians can work with key stakeholders to promote student engagement in reading. This workshop will focus on the role the Teacher Librarian can play in leading reading programs in their school, working in collaboration with key stakeholders to support student engagement in reading and storytelling.
	Workshop 2A: Leading the Reading – Primary Teachers	TKS - Library and Zoom Breakout Room
	Workshop 2B: Leading the Reading – Secondary Teachers	TKS - Library and Zoom Breakout Room
12.55 – 1:00pm	Close	Library theatre and Zoom broadcast