

School Library Association
OF NEW SOUTH WALES

Role Statement: VICE PRESIDENT - Professional Learning (VPPL)

The Vice President - Professional Learning is responsible for the coordination of the professional learning activities of the Association and will work with the Vice President – Operations (VPO) to:

1. preside at general or executive meetings and act as the President in the absence of the President or when the President is unable to act in that role;
2. act as official spokesperson in conjunction with the President;
3. be an alternate signatory for the Association for legal purposes and financial purpose;
4. assist the President in deciding which matters are dealt with by the office bearers, the Management Committee, or delegated to subcommittees; and
5. assist the President with strategies and plans for the Association.

The specific responsibilities of the Vice President - Professional Learning are directed towards developing a Professional Learning Community for the staff of school libraries in NSW. These include:

1. chairing the Professional Learning subcommittee;
2. organising and facilitating face-to-face and online events and courses, which offer regular and diverse learning opportunities to SLANSW members;
3. establishing and continuing Accreditation Status with NESAs for the Association;
4. designing professional learning that provides NESAs Registered Professional Development hours for members; and
5. collaborating with the Vice President - Operations to identify partners who can deliver professional learning to SLANSW members.
